NAME:

Your Task:

You have to select a decade and select two topics to research. For this paper, you need to explore this topic thoroughly and write a paper describing how your topic has influenced history.

For example, if you select the 1950s and choose to research historical events, you must select one important historical event that occurred in the 1950s. You must explain what it was, why it was important, and how it influenced history.

In addition, if you also chose to also research famous people, you must select one famous person who was popular or successful in the 1950s. You must explain who this person is, his or her accomplishments, why he or she is famous, and how he or she influenced history.

Your paper will consist of at least 6 paragraphs:

1. Introduction
2. Topic #1 - Explain what your topic is and why it is important.
3. Topic #1 - Explain how this topic influenced history
4. Topic #2 - Explain what your topic is and why it is important.
5. Topic #2 - Explain how this topic influenced history
6. Conclusion
