INTRODUCTION

At LEAST 3 sentences!

General Sentence about your DECADE!

Specific Sentence about YOUR TOPICS.

State they impacted/influenced/affected/changed history or society
Sample:

- The 1940s were a challenging time in American history. Many important inventions took place during this time in aviation and technology. During this time the helicopter was invented and the atom bomb was created. This certainly influenced not only the 1940s, but history itself.
The 1980s were an exciting time in history. Artists such as Michael Jackson and inventions such as the high definition television sparked major change in society. This influenced not only the decade, but its impact is still evident today in society.
Conclusions

• Include a brief summary of the paper’s main points, but don’t simply repeat things that were in your paper. In other words, do not flip your introduction!

• Never introduce new ideas!

• State that your topics impacted history!
• The creation of the helicopter improved aviation in the 1940s and beyond. Moreover, the atomic bomb invention changed the way Americans viewed war. These two devices impacted the 1940s and history forever. Thus, the 1940s were an important decade in American history.
• Because of artists like Michael Jackson, who popularized the concept of music videos and pop music, and inventions, such as the high definition TV which changed the clarity of screens for viewers across the world, history has been affected greatly. Everyone has benefitted from these two creations. Thus, Michael Jackson and the HDTV’s impact is still evident today.