

Problems?

Pennsylvania Breaker Boys.

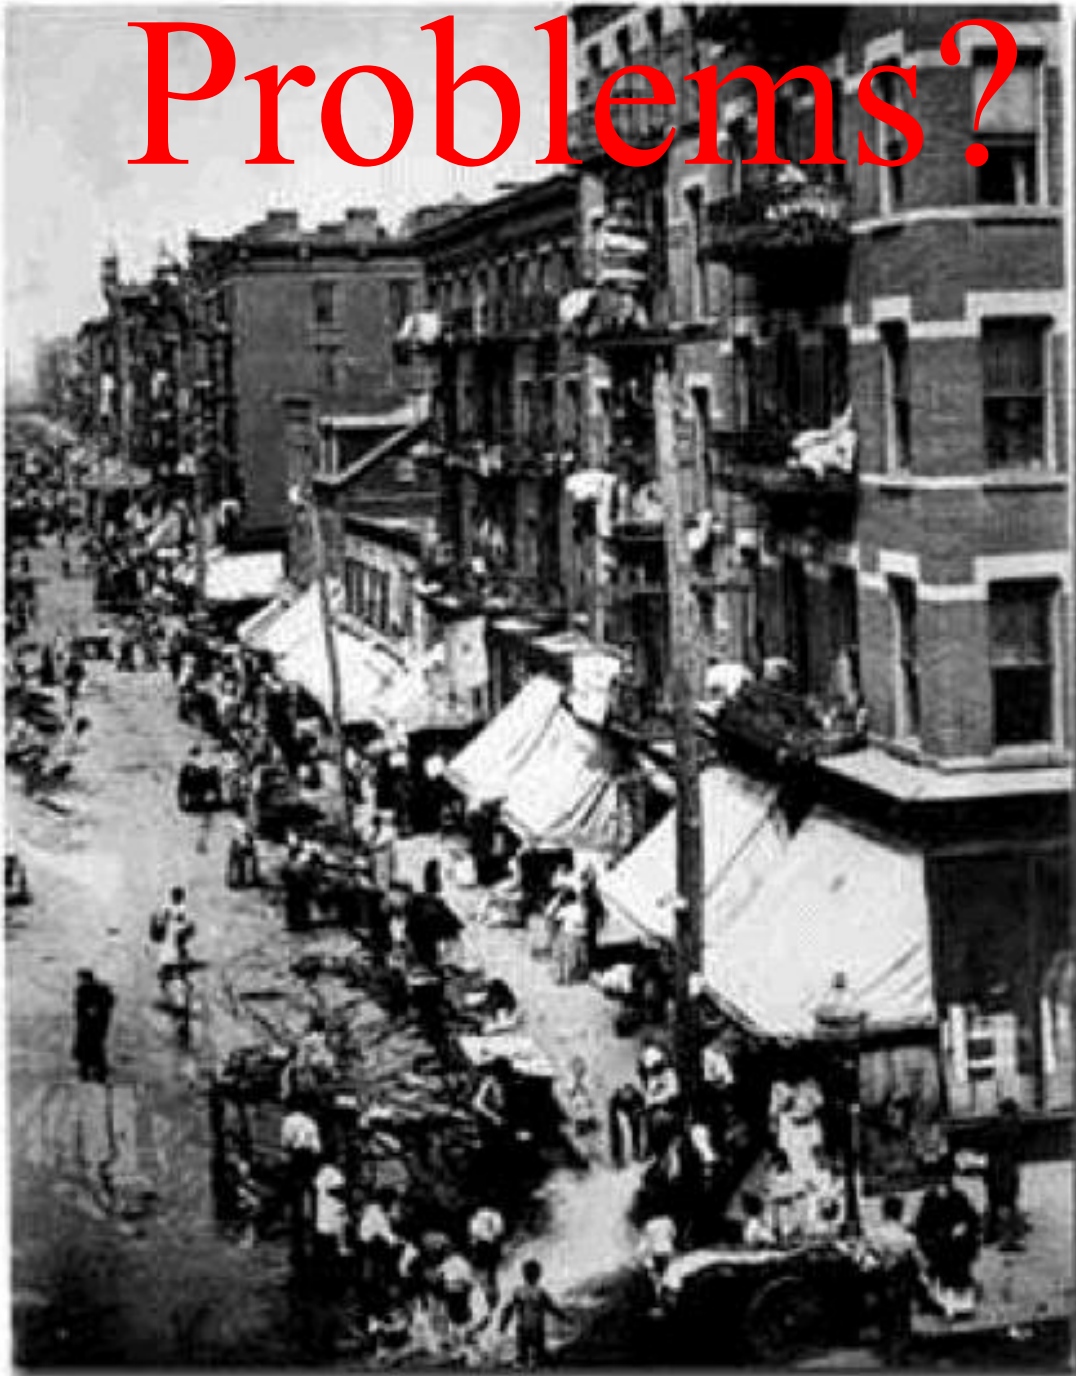

Problems?

Fredrikke S. Palmer.

Profit

Greed

Luxury

Indifference

Poverty

Ignorance

Problems?

Solutions

Problems?

BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF AN EAST SIDE
TENEMENT BLOCK. (FROM A DRAWING BY CHARLES F. WINGATE, ESQ.)

I. Who were the Progressives?

- Starts with City dwellers
- Educated professionals
- Doctors, lawyers, clergy, writers & teachers
- They had Many concerns

- They were positive thinkers
- Wanted to end abuses to
- American workers
- American people

Reform

- A change for the better
- Progressives wanted reform
- Progressives wanted change for the better.

II. Why a need for PROGRESS?

- Laissez-Faire allowed U.S.

Businesses to operate without regulations

- Who pays the price?
- Working Americans. Poor Americans.

"The doors are opened unwillingly enough It was photographed by flashlight In a room not thirteen feet either way slept twelve men and women. . . . The 'apartment' was one of three in two adjoining buildings we had found . . . similarly crowded. Most of the men were lodgers, who slept there for five cents a spot."