

THE NEW CHAUFFEUR

THE MARCH 4TH RECEPTION COMMITTEE

II “Alphabet Soup”

- During the first 100 days of Roosevelt’s Presidency, FDR and Congress pass many new laws designed to fight the Great Depression.
- FDR begins a MASSIVE government intervention in the lives of ordinary Americans.

- Relief: Help for those who have lost everything.
- Recovery: Getting the economy working again!
- Reform: Make changes to ensure that nothing like the depression can happen again!