Forge Chapter 5 (V) Question

In this chapter, the battle is described very vividly. Imagery is when a reader can picture something in his/her mind because it is described so clearly. Imagery involves sensory language, where an image appeals to one or more of the five senses. Use RAFT to answer the questions below in ONE organized response.

➢ Find at least two citations from Chapter Five that are great examples of imagery of the battle. A citation is a direct quote copied from the text including its page number.
➢ Each example should exemplify a different sense. Explain which sense(s) are stimulated by the citation.
➢ Explain what mood is created from EACH of these images. Mood should be described using vivid adjectives. Mood is the feeling of the reader.
