

December 1, 1955:

Rosa Parks refused to give up her seat on a bus to a white passenger which began the Montgomery bus boycott lasting 381 days.

December 2, 1823:

James Monroe issued the Monroe Doctrine.

